INGREDIENTS

SERVING SIZE 1 - 8 -inch round tarte

YIELD 4 servings

TOTAL TIME approx. 1 hour

HOMEMADE TARTE DOUGH

3 cups all purpose flour | plus more for dusting

2 ¼ tsp. (1 packet) active dry yeast

1 tsp granulated sugar

1 tsp kosher salt

1 cup warm water (105–110°F)

2 TBSP extra virgin olive oil | plus more for brushing

Proof the yeast: In a small bowl, combine 1 cups warm water (105–110°F), 1 teaspoons granulated sugar, and 2.3 teaspoons active dry yeast (about 1 packet). Let stand until foamy.

Mix the dough: In a large bowl, whisk together 3 cups all-purpose flour, plus more for dusting and 1 teaspoons kosher salt. Add the yeast mixture and 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil, plus more for brushing. Mix until a shaggy dough forms.

Knead the dough: Knead on a lightly floured surface until smooth and elastic (a stand mixer with a dough hook takes about 9 minutes).

First rise: Place the dough in a lightly oiled bowl, cover, and let rise until doubled in size.

Divide and rest: Punch down the dough and divide into 4 equal portions. Shape each into a ball and let rest.

Shape the dough: Roll each ball into an 8-inch circle, about 1/8th inch thick.

Store Bought Substitute: Trader Joe's Lavash Flatbread

PIAVE MORNAY SAUCE

2 TBSP butter | unsalted

2 TBSP all-purpose flour

1 cup whole milk | warmed

3/4 cup Piave Vecchio cheese | finely grated

1 pinch kosher salt

Melt the butter: For the mornay sauce, melt 2 tablespoons unsalted butter in a saucepan over medium heat.

Cook the roux: Whisk in 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour and cook until the raw flour smell cooks off and the roux has a lightly nutty aroma.

Thicken the sauce: Slowly whisk in 1 cups whole milk, warmed until smooth. Simmer until thickened.

Add the cheese: Remove from heat and stir in 3/4 cups finely grated Piave Vecchio cheese until silky.

Season the sauce: Season with 1 pinch kosher salt, to taste. Keep warm.

GRILLING NECTARINES & ASSEMBLING THE TARTES FOR BAKING

Preheat the oven to 500°F for baking the fully assembled tarts. If you have a baking stone, place it inside while preheating for the best crispy crust.*

2 ripe but firm yellow nectarines | cut into 1/4-inch thick slices

8 slices prosciutto | cut into 1-inch ribbons

1 TBSP extra virgin olive oil | for grilling yellow nectarines

2 tsp fresh thyme | leaves

1 lemon | zested

1 pinch flaky sea salt | to taste

Grill the nectarines: Brush 2 ripe but firm nectarines, cut into thin 1/4-inch slices with 1 tablespoons olive oil, for grilling nectarines and grill over medium-high heat until lightly caramelized, about 4 minutes per side.

Cook the flatbread crusts: Preheat a dry, ungreased cast iron pan or skillet over medium-high heat. Brush each rolled dough round lightly with olive oil and cook until puffed, with large air bubbles and light golden-brown spotting on both sides, about 2–5 minutes per side.

Assemble the tarts: Spread each flatbread generously with the warm Piave Vecchio sauce. Arrange the grilled nectarines over the sauce, then drape the prosciutto ribbons evenly across the top.

Bake the tarts: Transfer tarts onto the hot stone or a parchment-lined baking sheet and bake until warm and the prosciutto begins to lightly crisp, about 5-6 minutes.

TO SERVE:

Finish each tarte with lemon zest, fresh thyme leaves, and flaky sea salt, to taste. Serve immediately.

Dough, sauce, and grilled nectarines can all be made ahead — assemble and bake just before serving. Preheating a baking stone or steel takes 30–45 minutes, so start the oven early in the process rather than after assembly.
